Montag, 19.6.2017., 16:15 in Raum 201

(Akademiestr. 4-8, 2. Stock)

Prof. Onishi from the Faculty of Philosophy of Mie University is a literary scholar for modern Japanese literature. He worked on numerous Japanese writers, i.a. Kitamura Tōkoku, Umekawa Fumio, Arishima Takeo, and Kobayashi Takiji. His publications address proletarian literature, realism, fascism and the history of thought.

The latter will be the main topic of this lecture: Prof. Onishi will introduce Japanese culture and literature on a broad scale. Specifically, he will focus on the famous writer Natsume Sōseki and the philosopher Miki Kiyoshi and their ways of thinking.
