

Lecture-Series

CHINA BEAT –

MEGA-EVENTS AND RECENT TRENDS IN TRANSCULTURAL CHINA

Professor Jeffrey N. Wasserstrom (UC Irvine)
Editor The China Beat – Blogging how the East is Read

Thursday, October 15

New Possibilities and Old Patterns in Publishing in and about China:

Professor Jeffrey N. Wasserstrom, with a Response by Chinese poet Bei Ling
18–20 h, Institute of Chinese Studies, Akademiestr. 4–8, Room 201

Friday, October 16

Mega-Events and the Rise of Global Cities: The Shanghai World Expo in Historical and Comparative Perspective,

Professor Jeffrey N. Wasserstrom
16–18 h, Karl Jaspers Center, Conference Room 212

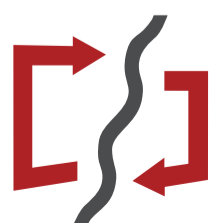

Monday, October 19

Chatter about China in the Global Public Sphere: From the Boxer Crisis to the Beijing Games and Beyond

Professor Jeffrey N. Wasserstrom
18–20 h, Institute of Chinese Studies, Room 136

ADMISSION FREE

This Lecture Series is funded by the Cluster of Excellence "Asia and Europe in a Global Context: Shifting Asymmetries in Cultural Flows of Heidelberg University and organized by the Cluster's research project B 12 Rethinking Trends – Transcultural Flows in Popular Spheres. For further information, please contact Petra Thiel at thiel@asia-europe.uni-heidelberg.de. For more information on the Cluster, please visit www.asia-europe.uni-heidelberg.de

ASIA AND EUROPE IN A GLOBAL CONTEXT
Shifting Asymmetries in Cultural Flows

RUPRECHT-KARLS-
UNIVERSITÄT
HEIDELBERG

