

Monies

Markets

and Finance

in China and East Asia, 1600-1900

Workshop III.5 „Money and Culture“, Heidelberg July 4-5 2008 - Programme -

Friday, July 4

14:00	Jochen Hörisch	Money as Medium - What Is Money and How Does It Work?
14:45	Sandra Richter	Philosophy of Money: Georg Simmel and Beyond
15:30	Shan Kunqin	Some Meanings of Money in Eighteenth-Century China: The Case of Wang Xifeng in the Novel "A Dream of the Red Chamber"

16:15 Break

16:45	Barbara Mittler	The Bliss of Money: Random Thoughts on Chinese Constructions of Happiness
17:30	Peter M. Kuhfus	Moscow - Peking - Pyongyang: The Crisis of October 1950
18:15	Tina Chen	Cashless Economies, Modernity, and Chinese Futures: Thoughts on Cultural Representations of the Disappearance of Paper Money in Socialist and Neoliberal China
19:00	Shelley C.-Y. Hsieh	What Is Underlying People's Perception of the Power of Money?

Saturday, July 5

09:00	Stefan Dieball	From the Mines to the Capital Mints? Copper Transportation Routes in Qing China
09:45	Thomas Hirzel	The Sino-Japanese Copper Trade around 1730: Personal Annotations of a Prefect of Suzhou

10:30 Break

11:00	Keiko Nagase-Reimer	Copper Markets in Premodern Japan
11:45	Pan Xiaoxia	Dealing with Bankruptcy in the Chinese Traditional Finance Institutions in the Late Qing Period

12:30 Lunch

14:00	Cao Jin	Copper and Lead Mining in Sichuan from 1740 to 1850: Economic, Social and Administrative Issues
14:45	Ulrich Theobald	Contribution Taxes (juanshu) during the Second Jinchuan Campaign: Rich Merchants' Dues to the Public Weal

15:30 Break

16:15	Yang Yuda	The Flood of 1849 in the Yangtze River Delta and Characteristics of Weather Conditions
17:00	Nanny Kim	Copper Transport Routes out of Yunnan and Finding the Actual Roads: Report of a Fieldwork Trip in March 2008

EBERHARD KARLS
UNIVERSITÄT
TÜBINGEN

